SUMMARY

I am a motivated and ambitious professional with a strong background in management, sales, event planning, and entrepreneurship. Throughout my career, I have gained valuable experience leading teams, managing branch operations, organizing successful events, and developing sales strategies that drive business growth. Currently, I own and manage a local fashion brand, where I oversee business operations, marketing, customer relations, and brand development. I am passionate about learning, taking on new challenges, and creating meaningful results through strong leadership skills.
